CUSTOM-DESIGNED KETUBOT

JEWISH WEDDING CONTRACTS

WHO BUYS A KETUBA?

A ketuba by Sharon Borstein makes a perfect wedding gift (some couples buy them for themselves!). Ketubot also make lovely anniversary gifts — a reaffirmation of the vows taken by the couple on the day of their wedding.

DESIGNING YOUR KETUBA

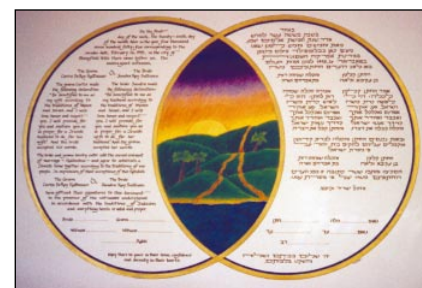

Decorating and beautifying the ketuba is a mitzvah. This good deed helps to make a beautiful and happy occasion even more special. After the ceremony, the ketuba can be framed and hung in the home as a work of art. It's a lovely reminder of one of life's milestones.

Following tradition, the ketuba is illuminated to personalize it and add to its beauty. Each ketuba is a unique, hand-crafted piece of art. Your ketuba begins with a meeting with the artist. Do you have special interests? Your ideas will be incorporated into the design so that the ketuba will reflect your history, hopes and dreams.

Are your tastes contemporary or traditional? Sharon's styles range from geometric to representational. Media include gouache (opaque watercolor), watercolor, ink, and colored pencil. All my ketubot are created on high-quality rag paper to last a lifetime.
